Iranian musician and founder of the Sol Music Center Bahman Mehabadi will perform a violin solo in a concert with the Cologne Philharmonic Orchestra.

"I will accompany the Cologne Philharmonic choir on their European tour beginning in June," Mehabadi told Mehr News Agency.

"I will also prepare a number of Persian pieces for the concert," he added.

Mehabadi learned to play the violin from Zaven Yadigarians and has performed in numerous international and national events, including Tehran's Fajr Music Festival.

He is also a member of Tehran Symphony Orchestra and a music researcher, who has published numerous articles on classical music.
